

Program celebrates first year

March was Leave a Legacy month for area charities in the Treasure Coast.

■ Leave a Legacy of the Treasure Coast

Among the organization that have benefited are the Florida Oceanographic Society, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Martin County and Hospice of the Treasure Coast.

"Once donors make arrangements for planning

From left: Suzanne Horstman, Robin Hicks-Connors, James Campo and Doyle Richardson receive a 'March is Leave a Legacy Month' proclamation from Martin County Commissioner Doug Smith.

giving, they become part of our family," said Nancy Perry, director of development for the Florida Oceanographic Society. "Donors develop an emotional investment in the society resulting in not only a planned gift, but often choosing to make an unsolicited annual contribution, as well."

For information, call (772) 286-0330.